

EvalPartners Awards

EvalPartners is pleased to release the Call for the EvalPartners Awards.

EvalPartners invites leaders of EvalPartners Networks, VOPE leaders and members of the EvalPartners Management group to nominate people for the EvalPartners Award.

Up to 7 awards will be given for contributions to the advancement of EvalPartners' Vision and to the Global Evaluation Agenda, namely:

- a. 2 awards for contributions made at the global level.
- b. 2 awards for contributions made at the regional level.
- c. 2 awards for contributions made at the national/local level.
- d. 1 award to a Young and Emerging Evaluator¹ (YEE).

To nominate a person, please fill a Nomination Form and send it to awards@ioce.net.

The nominations are accepted until 5:00 pm EST (Ontario, Canada time), on Wednesday February 24, 2017.

Decisions on the awards will be made by the selection committee made of distinguished former members of the IOCE board and EPMG.

The main criterion will be the contribution to advance EvalPartners' vision and the Global Evaluation Agenda. Additional criteria includes diversity of GEA dimensions, broad geographical coverage (North and South, regions), gender and age balance. Those who received an award in 2015 are not eligible for 2017 Awards.

Awards will be announced during the awards ceremony to be part of an evening reception at the Global Forum in Bishkek, Kyrgyzstan in April 2017. EvalPartners is not responsible to bring any awardees to the Forum.

Please kindly note that acting members of EvalPartners Management Group (EPMG) are not eligible for nomination.

¹ YEE = Evaluator under age of 30 years OR novice evaluators who have less than 5 years of professional experience OR recent university graduates who are interested and willing to join the evaluation profession OR development professionals who have technical knowledge on evaluation and willing to become professional evaluators.
